

Stage 2 – History

Our Aboriginal Heritage

Girrakool Picnic Area and Bulgandry Art Site Aboriginal Place,
Brisbane Water National Park

Program Overview

Students will discover the traditional lifestyles of the Aboriginal Peoples who lived on the Central Coast. They will understand the importance of connection to country through an exploration of Brisbane Water National Park.

Key Questions

1. Who lived here first and how do we know?
2. What was life like for Aboriginal Peoples before the arrival of the Europeans?
3. How did Aboriginal Peoples connect to Country and place?

Learning Experiences & Content

Historical Inquiry Process

The historical inquiry process will be used by students to understand more about Aboriginal histories and cultures. They will explore tools, weapons and utensils such as boomerangs, spears and axe heads. They will investigate aspects of Aboriginal lifestyle by using fire sticks and brainstorm reasons why fire would have been important for Aboriginal Peoples in caring for Country.

Walk through Brisbane Water National Park

Students will learn about the Aboriginal bush supermarket, and they will see the bush as a resource for food, shelter, weapons and tools. Seasonal changes in availability will be observed and discussed. They will learn about the importance and close connection that Aboriginal Peoples had with their environment and local Country.

Students will visit an Aboriginal engraving site and learn the importance of caring for such cultural sites.

Bulgandry Aboriginal Engravings

The Bulgandry Art Site Aboriginal Place will be viewed and compared to the engraving site at Girrakool. Students will have the option to be painted with ochre as a mark of respect to our traditional custodians. If time allows, students will participate in activities that include an Aboriginal game and a drawing of the engravings.
